9 The legislature finds that accountability and effectiveness are 10 important aspects of setting tax policy. In order to make policy 11 choices regarding the best use of limited state resources, the 12 legislature needs information to evaluate whether the stated goals of 13 legislation were achieved.

14 (1) The goals of the small public water system excise tax 15 exemptions are:

16 (a) To provide assistance to small public water systems, that are 17 most in need, to make necessary and immediate repairs to their 18 infrastructural needs; and

19 (b) To allow these small systems to comply with state and federal 20 mandates necessary for safe drinking water for citizens served by these 21 systems.

22 (2)(a) A person who receives the benefit of a tax exemption under 23 section 1 or 2 of this act shall make an annual report to the 24 department detailing the specific capital improvements that were made 25 to their respective systems by utilizing the money made available by 26 these exemptions. The report is due by March 31st following any year 27 in which a tax exemption under section 1 or 2 of this act is claimed or 28 used. Information in a report under this section is not subject to the 29 confidentiality provisions of RCW 82.32.330 and may be disclosed to the 30 public upon request.

31 (b) If a person fails to submit an annual report under (a) of this 32 subsection by the due date of the report, the department shall declare 33 the amount of taxes exempted for that year to be immediately due and 34 payable. Public utility taxes payable under this subsection are 35 subject to interest but not penalties, as provided under this chapter.
36 This information is not subject to the confidentiality provisions of 37 RCW 83.32.330 and may be disclosed to the public upon request.

1 (3) By December 1, 2010, the fiscal committees of the house of 2 representatives and the senate, in consultation with the department,
3 shall report to the legislature on the effectiveness of the tax
4 exemptions under sections 1 and 2 of this act.

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate 6 preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the 7 state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect 8 immediately.
